Church of Christ News

Our experience social was very successful. All enjoyed a good time and about $45 was given for our building fund.

Last Sunday was a good day for us—large attendance at all services. One hundred and thirty-two attended Bible school. The "Bring One" contest is working fine. Come Sunday and see. Be sure to bring another.

We hope to have another great prayer meeting Thursday evening. Last week thirty-six were present. We want fifty this week. We can reach that mark if YOU will come. Remember we have challenged Midland for a prayer meeting contest and we must win.

Our Sunday evening service will be in the interest of the "Dry Campaign." Special music, recitations, readings and sermon. We extend a cordial invitation to all to attend this service.

Baptist Church News

The Sunday school is taking a decided interest in the five-year program. New scholars are enrolled each week. Keep the good work moving. Get into the campaign; plan, push, lift, win one, more if possible, but at least bring one.

The Matilda Smith Mission circle will meet on Friday afternoon at five o'clock with Mrs. Harrison on South Bridge street.
